

MATTHEW G. LAWSON, Associate

Matthew Lawson is an associate in the firm's Environmental and Workplace Health and Safety Law Practice. He joined the firm in 2017.

Mr. Lawson graduated with a BA in Environmental Studies from University of Washington in 2012. He received his JD from Northwestern University Pritzker School of Law in 2017, graduating cum laude. During law school, Mr. Lawson served as the Note and Comment Editor for the Journal of Law and Social Policy and as treasurer of the Environmental Law Society. In addition, Mr. Lawson served as a student attorney for the Bluhm Legal Clinic's Environmental Advocacy Center, where he advocated for environmental solutions through litigation and legislative proceedings.

Mr. Lawson is admitted to practice in Illinois.

Service to the Bar

- Chicago Bar Association
Member, 2016-present

Publications

- Co-Author, "Pipeline Projects—The Evolving Role of Greenhouse Gas Emissions Analyses Under NEPA," Energy Law Journal, May 7, 2020
- Co-Author, Illinois Judge Blocks Current and Future Extensions of Illinois Stay-at-Home Order, April 29, 2020
- Co-Author, "A Look at EPA's Plan to Regulate PFAS in Drinking Water," Law360, March 13, 2020
- Environmental Law in Corporate and Real Estate Transactions 2019 Edition, IICLE, May 2019

Speaking Engagements

- Presenter, "The Biden Effect: What to Expect from the New Administration's Environmental Agenda," Jenner & Block, January 27, 2021

MATTHEW G. LAWSON Associate

CHICAGO

Office: 312 840-7355

Email: mlawson@jenner.com

PRACTICE GROUPS

Environmental and Workplace Health & Safety Law

EDUCATION

Northwestern University School of Law, JD, 2017; Cum laude

University of Washington, BA, 2012; Cum laude

ADMISSIONS

Illinois, 2017