

LEAH M. SONG, Associate

Leah Song is an associate in the firm's Environmental and Workplace Health & Safety Law Department. She joined the firm in 2019.

Mrs. Song received her BA in environmental studies from the University of Chicago in 2016, where she graduated with honors. She received her JD from the University of Chicago Law School in 2019. During law school, she advocated for energy justice as a member of the Abrams Environmental Law Clinic. She was recognized with the Donald E. Egan Scholar Award and the Ann Watson Barber Outstanding Service Award for her contribution to the quality of life at the Law School. Mrs. Song was also acknowledged with Pro Bono Honors for completing over 250 hours of pro bono during law school. Prior to joining Jenner & Block, Mrs. Song completed a PILI Fellowship with Ascend Justice, formerly known as the Domestic Violence Legal Clinic.

Mrs. Song is admitted to practice in the state of Illinois.

Service to the Bar

- Chicago Bar Association
Member, 2019-present
- Women's Bar Association of Illinois
Member, 2019-present

Publications

- Co-Author, Illinois Judge Blocks Current and Future Extensions of Illinois Stay-at-Home Order, April 29, 2020
- Co-Author, Client Alert: Does the OSH Act Give an Employee the Right to Refuse to Work Due to Fear of Workplace COVID 19 Exposure?, March 27, 2020

LEAH M. SONG Associate

CHICAGO

Office: 312 840-7399

Email: lsong@jenner.com

PRACTICE GROUPS

Environmental and Workplace Health & Safety Law

EDUCATION

University of Chicago Law School, J.D., 2019; Pro Bono Honors; Donald E. Egan Scholar Award; Ann Watson Barber Outstanding Service Award

The University of Chicago, B.A., 2016; Honors; University of Chicago Dean's List

ADMISSIONS

Illinois, 2019