

ERIC W. WOLFF, Associate

Eric Wolff is an associate in the Litigation Department.

Mr. Wolff received his JD from USC Gould School of Law in 2021. During law school, he served as an Executive Senior Editor of the Southern California Law Review and received the James G. Holbrook Award for the most significant contribution to the journal as a staff member. He also externed for Justice Ming W. Chin of the California Supreme Court and worked as a research assistant to Professor Donald M. Scotten.

Mr. Wolff received his BA in sociology with a minor in music from the University of California, Santa Barbara, earning a University Award of Distinction for his service as General Manager of UCSB's radio station. Prior to law school, Mr. Wolff worked as a musician and music teacher in Seattle.

Publications

- Note, "Rearranging Fair Use: A Critical Analysis of Kienitz v. Sconnie Nation," Southern California Law Review, Vol. 94, No. 1, November 2020
- Opinion, "Increased Access to Justice at the Trial Level Should Be Matched at the Appellate Level," San Francisco Daily Journal, July 18, 2019

ERIC W. WOLFF Associate

LOS ANGELES

Office: 213 239-5117

Email: eric.wolff@jenner.com

PRACTICE GROUPS

Litigation

EDUCATION

University of Southern California Gould School of Law, JD, 2021; Order of the Coif; Executive Senior Editor, Southern California Law Review

University of California, Santa Barbara, BA, 2012; High Honors; Distinction in the Major of Sociology

ADMISSIONS

California, 2021