

CORAL A. NEGRON, Partner

Coral A. Negron, a member of the firm's Investigations, Compliance and Defense Practice, brings more than 10 years of experience to high-pressure, high-stakes internal investigations. She reviews and provides recommendations to improve corporate compliance policies and programs and conducts analysis related to the Foreign Corruption Practices Act (FCPA).

Clients turn to Ms. Negron when facing significant legal and government enforcement risks. Ms. Negron works with her clients on the following:

- Internal investigations into potential fraud, corruption and other white collar issues;
- FCPA compliance reviews;
- Representation in government investigations and enforcement actions involving the U.S. Department of Justice, U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) and other federal, state and local agencies;
- Preparation and revisions of compliance policies and training materials; and
- Joint venture due diligence.

Ms. Negron has worked on a broad range of sensitive, high-stakes matters. A representative sample includes the following:

- Advising a large defense contractor regarding ethics and anti-corruption issues, including revising company policies and training materials;
- Representing an individual in a DOJ and SEC investigation related to potential FCPA violations;
- Representing an international oil company in a DOJ and SEC investigation into potential FCPA violations;
- Representing a medical supply manufacturer and distributor in a DOJ inquiry into potential Anti-Kickback Statute and False Claims Act violations;
- Representing a financial institution in a DOJ investigation into potential financial fraud;
- Conducting an internal investigation of a financial institution in connection with fraud allegations; and
- Playing a senior leadership role on one of the largest FCPA compliance monitorships in history.
