

JONATHAN A. LANGLINAIS (ALEX), Associate

Jonathan Alexander Langlinais is an associate in the firm's Litigation Department.

Mr. Langlinais received his JD in 2016 from Yale Law School, where he represented homeowners in Connecticut trial and appellate courts as a member of the Mortgage Foreclosure Litigation Clinic. Prior to joining the firm, Mr. Langlinais clerked for the Honorable Diana Gribbon Motz on the United States Court of Appeals for the Fourth Circuit and went on to complete a Jenner & Block Pro Bono Fellowship with the Human Trafficking Legal Center.

Since joining the firm as an associate, Mr. Langlinais's practice has spanned a variety of litigation and regulatory matters. These include representing copyright owners and their representatives in infringement and royalty disputes, advising clients on various data privacy issues, representing and advising clients in the telecommunications and entertainment industries, and multiple appellate matters before the courts of appeals and the Supreme Court.

Mr. Langlinais's pro bono service includes work on election law, appellate, immigration, and human trafficking matters.
