

JENNA E. ROSS, Partner

Jenna E. Ross is a partner in the firm's Litigation Department. Ms. Ross's practice focuses on complex commercial disputes in both state and federal courts as well as in arbitration.

Ms. Ross represents clients in a broad range of commercial matters, with a focus on complex breach of contract, fraud, business tort, and antitrust litigation. Ms. Ross's experience spans a number of industries, including financial services, financial technology, aerospace, telecommunications, media and entertainment, and consumer goods.

Ms. Ross maintains an active pro bono practice with a focus on reproductive rights advocacy. She has drafted several amicus briefs in pivotal reproductive rights cases, including before the US Supreme Court. She also represents non-profit organizations in contractual disputes, and co-authored a brief that led to the overturning of a felony conviction in the Appellate Division of New York state court.

Ms. Ross received her BA in psychology in 2008 from the University of Virginia, from which she graduated with highest distinction. She graduated magna cum laude in 2013 from New York University School of Law. Ms. Ross was a member of the Order of the Coif, a Florence Allen Scholar and an articles editor for the Annual Survey of American Law. Ms. Ross also interned at the US Attorney's Office, Southern District of New York, Civil Division and co-chaired the Mental Health Law Association.

Prior to joining Jenner & Block, Ms. Ross served as a law clerk to the Honorable Sidney H. Stein of the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York. She previously focused on securities litigation at an international law firm.
