Recognition

September 2, 2020

In its profile of Jenner & Block Partner Lindsay C. Harrison, The NLJ highlights both her strong record in appellate courts as well as her thriving hospitality practice. It notes her successful work as lead lawyer in one of three cases the US Supreme Court considered before overturning the Trump administration's rescission of the Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals program, or DACA. Lindsay is also honored for her leadership role at the firm, including her work on the firm's response to the pandemic. As the profile says, she remains optimistic about the legal profession: "People are reacting to the world around us right now in an attempt to try to work together and get to a better place. It's pretty amazing, actually. Everyone seems to be a little bit kinder right now. That makes me hopeful."
