“Respect, and even reverence, for the law is at the very heart and soul of this society.”

— Albert E. Jenner, Jr.
ABOUT JENNER & BLOCK LLP

Jenner & Block is a law firm of approximately 500 lawyers located in Chicago, London, Los Angeles, New York and Washington, D.C. Founded in 1914, the firm has for years been highly recognized in various practice areas, perhaps most notably in arbitration and litigation from the trial level through the United States Supreme Court. Jenner & Block attorneys have tried hundreds of cases across the United States. The firm has also been at the center of several of the most important investigations and white-collar cases in recent times. Our practice is known for having completed the largest internal investigation in US history, representing the court-appointed examiner in the Lehman Brothers Holdings bankruptcy, among other notable matters in recent years.

Many of our practice groups and attorneys are highly recognized by Chambers USA each year. In 2019, 50 partners were recognized as “America’s Leading Lawyers” while the firm was named as among the United States’ top law firms in 30 practice areas on state and national levels by Chambers USA. US News - Best Lawyers® highly recognizes the firm every year, and in 2019, dozens of Jenner & Block Practices ranked “Tier 1” in US News - Best Lawyers® 2019 “Best Law Firms.” We are also frequently included in The American Lawyer's “A-List” of the best 20 law firms in the United States.

For more than four decades, Jenner & Block has been representing Japanese companies in various practice areas, including litigation, arbitration, investigation, antitrust cases, IP related cases, M&A, and transaction matters. Many Jenner & Block lawyers have lived and worked in Japan, and we have a native Japanese lawyer who is admitted to practice both in Japan (currently inactive) and in the United States and has practiced in both countries. Based on deep knowledge of Japanese business culture, we counsel many Japanese companies in the US legal system and US legal practice. We also have had Japanese lawyers and legal managers work with us as interns, across multiple offices in the United States. We have extensive experience in co-representing Japanese companies with Japanese lawyers in Japan, and we have a close relationships with several prominent law firms in Tokyo and Osaka.

Nearly every practice group within Jenner & Block now has experience working with Japanese clients, and we welcome questions regarding how we might coordinate to guide our Japanese clients through complex disputes, investigations, and transactions. We regularly assist Japanese companies with their initial entry into the US market and understand the legal and regulatory challenges that quality institutions from Japan face when doing business in the United States.

A MESSAGE FROM OUR MANAGING PARTNER

Thank you for taking the time to learn about Jenner & Block. As you will read in this short brochure, our law firm has a rich history of working side-by-side with our clients and colleagues in Japan to deliver exceptional legal services. We are grateful that so many clients and friends from Japan have called upon us for support over the years, and we are hopeful to continue working with clients and lawyers from Japan. The partnership that I am honored to manage has significant experience working with clients and lawyers from Japan.

Several transactional, litigation, and intellectual property partners – including myself – practiced law in Japan as exchange lawyers and still frequently travel to Tokyo, Osaka and Nagoya, among other places, to meet with clients and the many Japanese bengoshi with whom we work. The co-founding partner of our Los Angeles office similarly practiced in Japan, and we have a high-quality bengoshi on staff there. Our partners in New York and Washington, D.C. are also experienced working with Japanese clients, on transactional and litigation matters, as well as regulatory issues and government contracts challenges.

If you find yourself near any of our offices, please let us know, as it would be a pleasure to host a visit from you. Our commitment to Japan remains resolute. We hope to see you soon!

LITIGATION & ARBITRATION

Jenner & Block has been a leader in litigation for more than a century. Our trial lawyers are recognized in courtrooms around the country for their principled, zealous and effective advocacy. We have handled nearly every type of complex litigation and arbitration matter, with quality results.

We count among our ranks 12 Fellows of the prestigious American College of Trial Lawyers, two former US Attorneys, a former US Solicitor General, a former US Associate Attorney General, a former Chief of Investment Arbitration with the US Department of State, a former Illinois Supreme Court Chief Justice, 52 lawyers recognized as “America’s Leading Lawyers” by Chambers USA, and numerous leaders of national, state and local bar associations. We have earned our reputation as a litigation powerhouse.

The American Lawyer previously selected us as one of the top five litigation departments in the United States. Citing our impressive business victories for Fortune 500 clients, the magazine singled out Jenner & Block for our “astonishing” trial results and “hard fought” settlements. Chambers Global legal directory has described Jenner & Block as a firm with “bedrock strength in trial work,” while reporting that our clients “remain steadfast in their support, describing the group as ‘absolutely outstanding.’”

Our arbitration lawyers effectively adapt the advocacy and witness examination skills developed in Jenner & Block’s renowned litigation practice to the style and culture of domestic and international arbitration. The co-chairs of the group were described by Chambers USA as “an exceptional team,” combining “deep understanding of the various arbitration authorities and the international bar” with “extraordinarily gifted advocacy.”

Our appellate lawyers are consistently ranked as among the best in the nation. We have been named to The National Law Journal’s “Appellate Hot List” for 10 consecutive years.

INVESTIGATIONS, COMPLIANCE AND DEFENSE

For more than 60 years, we have represented individuals and corporations in complex criminal prosecutions and internal investigations. Our lawyers have tried hundreds of jury and bench trials to verdict and conducted countless investigations.

Our practice includes two former United States attorneys; eight former assistant US attorneys and several former supervisors of US attorney’s offices; and the former head of the Criminal Division of the New York Attorney General’s office.

We represent individuals and businesses in criminal prosecutions, grand jury investigations, extradition proceedings and civil enforcement actions brought by state and federal agencies, including the Securities Exchange Commission. Our high level of credibility with prosecutors enables us to minimize the damage and disruption caused by these proceedings, often before charges are brought. If an indictment or charge cannot be avoided, we can advise on the risks and benefits of going to trial versus accepting a plea, and we have the experience and expertise to take the matter to trial if necessary.

Our attorneys conduct internal investigations for companies that are faced with internal or external allegations of wrongdoing or that want to audit proactively for potential misconduct. Our experience with many government enforcement agencies enables us to provide sound advice concerning the best course of action if wrongdoing is identified, including potential disclosure to authorities. We also assist clients in creating and implementing compliance programs designed to avoid problems.

We are recognized leaders in counseling and defending clients regarding violations of the Foreign Corrupt Practices Act, an area often in the news because of increasingly aggressive government enforcement. We are well-known and respected by the Department of Justice FCPA unit due to our long history of interaction with that organization. We have conducted FCPA investigations for major corporate clients around the world and counseled companies with respect to FCPA compliance matters in nearly 50 foreign countries.
INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

We provide our clients with sophisticated intellectual property capabilities — from high-stakes, bet-the-company litigation and complex outsourcing and licensing counseling to cutting-edge representation in the digital realm and beyond.

We litigate patent cases for our clients in courts across the country with creativity, strong technical credentials, and extensive trial experience. We litigate those patent cases against both competitors and non-practicing entities. Our matters have involved biotechnology, pharmaceuticals, medical devices, chemical manufacturing, petrochemicals, plastics, electronic hardware, microchips, computer software, telecommunications, food services, automotive devices, energy production and other technologies.

We also help brand owners confront the full spectrum of trademark issues they encounter in the marketplace, including trademark and trade dress infringement, false advertising, dilution and cybersquatting cases.

The entertainment IP practice and its attorneys at Jenner & Block are widely recognized as among the best in the country. Selected as a "Practice Group of the Year: Media & Entertainment" by Law360 in 2017, 2016, 2015, 2014, 2013 and 2011, our intellectual property lawyers are lauded for their headline grabbing work in industry changing matters. The practice was honored with the Chambers USA "Award for Excellence" in 2014 and 2012, recognizing Jenner & Block as the country’s top media and entertainment law firm. The team is noted by Chambers USA as having “an outstanding reputation in the media and entertainment space, offering clients in the motion picture, television and music industries exceptional representation in precedent-setting litigation.” Client comments also recognize the practice for its “unparalleled track record in media and entertainment litigation, particularly involving copyright and content protection issues.”

The Legal 500 has heralded Jenner & Block as the No. 1 copyright practice in the United States three times, noting our practice as “a pre-eminent choice for copyright litigation”; “widely regarded as one of the elite class” of copyright practices; with a “looming presence in the entertainment industry” and a client base “dominated by A-list heavyweights.” In 2017, Managing Intellectual Property magazine named Jenner & Block “National Copyright Firm of the Year” for the fourth time; the firm was also named “National Appellate Firm of the Year” and regional “Copyright Firm of the Year” (East).

GOVERNMENT CONTRACTS

Representing companies from the largest defense contractors to small businesses and start-ups, our attorneys draw on a wealth of industry and litigation experience to help clients successfully avoid or resolve contract disputes with the US government. Our attorneys understand the intricacies and practicalities of doing business with the government, as well as the real-world challenges clients face when those contracts break down or the government investigates them. We know the judges in the specialized tribunals; we know the government decision makers; we know the investigators and auditors; and we know what works, whether the issue is rockets, submarines or cloud services.

ANTITRUST

Our lawyers represent clients in antitrust litigation that runs the full spectrum of types of matters, from defending civil claims, advising on class actions and handling investigations. We advise on antitrust matters in an increasing number of new contexts including health care and banking/finance.

Our antitrust lawyers also have successfully represented clients in many high-profile antitrust grand jury investigations and other government civil antitrust inquiries. Our resources include two former United States lawyers and numerous former Assistant United States Attorneys. Our experienced team has considerable counseling experience and advises clients on antitrust issues related to distribution, pricing, joint ventures and other matters.

TRADE SECRETS

Jenner & Block’s Trade Secrets and Restrictive Covenants Practice is at the forefront of trade secret law. We are highly experienced at securing victories for our clients, as plaintiffs and defendants, both in and out of the courtroom. Our interdisciplinary team comprises members of the firm’s Litigation, Intellectual Property and Labor and Employment practices. This coordinated approach results in a team that is highly collaborative and excels at providing proactive counseling to avoid litigation and successfully and efficiently resolving litigation if it does arise. Our attorneys have litigated trade secret cases throughout the country, in both state and federal courts, from temporary restraining orders to trial and appeals. With a proliferation of cases aimed at protecting or attacking valuable intellectual property, trade secrets are more important than ever.

In two recent trade secrets cases representing clients as plaintiffs, Jenner & Block obtained a $940 million jury verdict in Wisconsin federal court and a $130 million settlement on the first day of trial in Washington state court. The firm has also successfully defended its clients in trade secret litigation, resulting in pre-trial dismissals and complete defense verdicts, and provided counseling to help clients avoid disputes in the first instance. Additionally, our attorneys have an invaluable understanding of federal security requirements, and have security clearances that allow them to work on the most highly confidential matters involving secrets that spill over from private trade secrets into state secrets.

We stand ready to protect our clients’ valuable trade secrets, to guard against any missteps during the hiring process, and to defend against allegations of wrongdoing if they arise.
MERGERS & ACQUISITIONS

Our lawyers regularly represent public and private companies, private equity investors, special committees and other parties in a broad range of US and cross-border M&A transactions, including acquisitions, divestitures, spin-offs, MBOs, LBOs, going-private transactions and reorganizations. We assist our clients in all aspects of M&A transactions — from front-end strategic planning and structuring to managing the deal process through successful execution and closing. Our corporate lawyers work closely with lawyers from our employee benefits and executive compensation, environmental, government contracts, labor, privacy and data security, real estate, tax and other groups to provide comprehensive due diligence and integrated transaction structures and advice. Our lawyers have extensive and varied transaction experience, across a broad range of industries, with up-to-date knowledge of the constantly changing legal environment.

Our corporate lawyers are also active in advising clients in all aspects of the formation, financing, operation and restructuring of cross-border joint ventures and strategic alliances in addition to advising clients on the ongoing governance of joint ventures, applicable exit strategies and government regulations applicable thereto.

CORPORATE FINANCE

We have extensive experience in corporate finance transactions, with specific proficiency in acquisition and leveraged finance, commercial finance, secured and unsecured lending, cross-border finance, public and private debt placements (including medium-term note and commercial paper programs), equipment leasing, debtor in possession and exit financings and workouts and restructurings. In addition, we regularly handle cross-border structured finance transactions, including factoring, receivables, purchase and securitization transactions.

Our lawyers regularly represent sophisticated US and international corporations, financial institutions, investment funds and private equity sponsors in domestic and cross-border complex financing transactions.

IP TRANSACTIONS

We have broad experience structuring and negotiating agreements for the development, acquisition and commercialization of intellectual property assets and technology. In particular, our transactional lawyers have strong experience representing domestic and foreign clients in a wide range of IP and technology transactions, including: licenses of all types, IP portfolio sales and acquisitions; research and development agreements; partnering and collaboration agreements; distribution, supply and other commercialization agreements; content and rights acquisitions; joint ventures and strategic alliances; IT outsourcing and services agreements.

We provide sophisticated transactional services to assist companies in achieving their global business objectives. Our lawyers regularly represent clients in a broad range of industries, both public and privately held, in mergers and acquisitions, financing transactions, licensing deals, joint ventures, strategic investments and alliances, public equity and debt securities offerings, and tender offers.

SECURITIES

We have extensive experience in a variety of securities transactions. We represent clients in capital-raising activities ranging from small IPOs and private placements to the very largest public offerings, and we also represent clients in connection with the securities law aspects of M&A transactions and tender and exchange offers.

We also regularly counsel large and small publicly held companies on a wide range of securities compliance, 1934 Act reporting and ongoing disclosure matters, including with regard to financial reporting and the requirements of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act and the related SEC and securities exchange rules thereunder. Among our lawyers is a former chief counsel of the SEC’s Division of Corporation Finance.

We also represent public company audit committees, as well as independent directors and other public company committees, in matters involving the federal securities laws. Additionally, we represent companies in connection with registered spin-offs and split-offs as well as other complex corporate reorganizations.
Founded in 1914, Jenner & Block is defined by the exceptional results we produce, the values we share, the clients we serve and most importantly, our lawyers. We consistently deliver excellence in the most complex and demanding legal matters, both litigation and transactional. At Jenner & Block, the practice of law is more than a job — it is a calling to serve clients, the profession and the community. No matter what legal challenge is presented, we will commit our experience, professionalism, and teamwork toward achieving the best possible outcome.

JENNER & BLOCK’S RECENT HIGH-PROFILE MATTERS

In recent years, Jenner & Block lawyers have handled some of the most important legal matters in the United States.

- Secured a $940 million trade secrets jury verdict for Epic Systems Corp. in one of the largest trade secrets verdicts in US history and perhaps the largest verdict of any kind in Wisconsin.

- Conducted an internal investigation and produced an internal report to the board of directors for General Motors Company with regard to events leading up to certain recalls stemming from faulty ignition switches.

- Represented General Motors in connection with its $23.1 billion IPO and guided Sam Zell in the Tribune Company’s $8.2 billion going-private transaction.

- Won a complete defense victory for Duroc LLC when an Iowa jury ruled that Duroc did not infringe Deere & Co.’s patent covering rotary cutters and that the patent was invalid. Deere had sought in excess of $100 million in damages from the defendants for alleged willful infringement. Affirmed on appeal.

- Won a declaratory judgment for Chesapeake Energy Corp., against Bank of New York Mellon, in a dispute over timeliness of notice for redemption of $1.3 billion in notes at par, saving Chesapeake approximately $100 million in interest expense.

- Won a $101 million jury verdict on behalf of Ventas, Inc. for tortious interference arising out of its acquisition of a publicly traded healthcare REIT. Won again on appeal. Following our victory, the punitive damages claim was settled, bringing the total recovery to $227 million.

- Former Firm Chairman Anton Valukas was appointed as the Examiner in the Lehman Brothers Holdings bankruptcy, the largest such case in US history. A team of Jenner & Block lawyers wrote the “Valukas Report,” a detailed account of Lehman Brothers’ demise, which was universally applauded for its clarity and usefulness.

- Closed a $441 million cash tender offer for Obagi Medical Products by Valeant Pharmaceuticals. According to Bloomberg, the per-share premium was the largest in a pharmaceutical transaction in at least the prior four years.

- Won a $13 million jury trial in Los Angeles relating to intellectual property rights owned by heirs of the famous author John Steinbeck.

OUR PUBLIC SERVICE

JENNER & BLOCK HAS A LEGENDARY COMMITMENT TO PRO BONO.

The Jenner & Block name is synonymous with pro bono advocacy. Our passion for service has long been exemplified by the firm name Partners Albert E. Jenner, Jr. and Samuel W. Block, who worked on many pro bono cases involving civil and constitutional rights and were widely recognized for their contributions to public service.

In the 1950s, Partners Thomas P. Sullivan, Prentice H. Marshall and Jerold S. Solovy launched the firm’s pro bono program when, as active members of the Chicago Bar Association’s Defense of Indigent Prisoners Committee, they not only represented indigent criminal defendants, but also began recruiting dozens of other Jenner & Block lawyers to the same service. Our long-standing commitment to public service is a vital part of our culture and who we are as lawyers and people.

Jenner & Block was ranked by The American Lawyer as the #1 firm nationwide for pro bono efforts in 2019; we have received this #1 ranking 10 times and have been recognized as one of the top 10 pro bono programs every year since 1990.
OUR JAPAN PRACTICE

Jenner & Block’s partners and associates have deep personal experience working with Japanese clients and with large and small law firms in Japan. Several partners, from both the litigation and transactional practices of the firm, have lived and worked in Japan, and the firm has among its lawyers a native Japanese bengoshi. Indeed, we pride ourselves on the strong relationships that they have developed in Japan over a long period of time, working closely and cooperatively with high-quality Japanese lawyers on their most important US legal matters.

OUR COMMITMENT TO JAPAN

Jenner & Block has taken strides to provide information in Japanese regarding key legal decisions and other legal developments impacting international companies. We have also provided our Japanese-speaking clients and colleagues with access to key Jenner & Block practice descriptions and biographies in Japanese.

Jenner & Block Website – Japanese Edition

Jenner & Block has developed a Japanese language website, which describes key practice areas and key Japan team personnel.

Jenner & Block Report – Japan Newsletter

We produce a monthly newsletter written for our Japanese legal and business colleagues. The newsletter highlights key areas of development in the United States, including: patent law; white-collar defense and investigations (including antitrust and FCPA); class actions; attorney-client privilege; international dispute resolution; intellectual property; mergers and acquisitions; product liability; and much more. The newsletter is available in both Japanese and English.

In addition to our Japanese language website and newsletter, we show our commitment to our clients in Japan by scheduling frequent visits to Japan to work with our clients. We are very experienced with cultural differences and logistics required to properly represent a Japanese company in US litigation and arbitration.

We regularly accept Japanese exchange lawyers to work with us in the United States, and have done so for decades. In addition, we work cooperatively with Japanese law firms as co-counsel on all types of cross-border disputes and transactions.

OUR COMMITMENT TO JAPANESE LAW FIRMS

We regularly work closely and cooperatively with Japanese counsel at both large and small law firms, for the benefit of our clients. Our proven ability to work seamlessly with Japanese counsel allows us to address Japan law concerns and the need for local presence in some circumstances. By putting the needs of our client first, we have developed long-lasting and mutually beneficial relationships with many of Japan’s leading law firms and practitioners, allowing us to provide outstanding client service while avoiding the need to establish an office in Japan.
